Levy distributed: The levy was distributed to the Board. Supervisor Swanson stated that the Township is going with a 0.00% as the Township has enough money in the funds. Some funds need adjustments, and this will help reduce them. Trustee McKernan asked about going negative. Supervisor Swanson stated that if you go too low, it is hard to capture new growth. Assessor Oaks stated that the increased assessed value will help maintain the same amount of money the Township will receive.

Public Participation: None

Township Reports: Highway Commissioner Weisbruch reported the new truck will be delivered next Wednesday. The Garland Road project and piping was more serious than originally thought. With the help of Nunda Township and Highway Commissioner Mike Lesperance in evaluating the situation, the project got taken care of. With their help, it probably saved the Township at least $100,000.00. He stated that all the Townships help each other out and work together when issues come up.

Assessor Oaks stated appeals are still going on.

Trustee Stiller reminded everyone of the Turkey Trot, and they are still looking for volunteers. Trustee Stiller noted that the bill for the new hall floor was in this month's bills and asked when it was going to be done. It is supposed to be installed next week.

Trustee Ringel went to the TOI conference and attended some good classes. She wanted to thank all involved in the project Christmas box who provided donations.

Administrator Maioriello also attended the TOI conference and went to some good meetings. Supervisor Swanson attended the TOI conference also and attended some classes. The Shaw cemetery is moving forward with Lake County. Hopefully the cedar fence will get done this year. Wauconda School District has asked the Township to buy an advertising spot on their calendar to show support. The Township will purchase a small spot. The Township has received thank you letters from various organizations. December 13th will be the Township holiday program. The E-News goes out twice a month and if anyone has anything to put in it, please let the Supervisor know.

The staff Christmas party is scheduled for December 20th.

At 6:55 p.m., Trustee Ringel motioned to adjourn. Meeting was adjourned.

Submitted this 18th day of December 2019.
